Nicole By Nicole Richie

Some people say it's the perfect pair of shoes that complete an outfit, while others say it's the hair and the makeup that makes everything work; well I say it's the accessories. What goes better with an outfit than the perfect pair of earrings, bracelet, or necklace? Or what else can you grab on your way out of the house other than sunglasses that not only hide you from the paparazzi but make you still look completely fashionable? When I got the news that my accessories vision was soon to become a reality my mind went into over drive and I began creating pieces that reminded me of my favorite cities all over the world. I strongly believe in being true to yourself and this is exactly what my collection does. Every piece is unique, with its own style and flare, radiating individuality, while staying hip and fierce! So go out in style!
